FEGENTRI PRESS INFORMATION

Dear friends of FEGENTRI,
In the name of our President and our Board I am delighted to present this fourth edition of the 2024 FEGENTRI Press release. This month has been the occasion for the FEGENTRI riders to experience different racing cultures while sharing the values of the FEGENTRI such as friendship, elegance and sport excellence. The FEGENTRI would like to thank all national amateur clubs to be so welcoming and to allow them to live such moments.

The Club des Gentlemen Riders et des Cavalières organised a magnificent FEGENTRI Summer Gala at Deauville, which was the occasion for horse racing actors and riders to share unique moments together. This month was also the time of our first final race of the season, for the FEGENTRI Junior Championship at Waregem, Belgium. Well done to the victorious nation of Sweden!

Also, another FEGENTRI fact: Amanda Söderman (16), FEGENTRI Junior graduate who won in Budapest last year, won her first race under rules in Gothenburg, Sweden on August 11th on the thoroughbred Yalla Yalla, owned by FEGENTRI Board member Hans Engblom. Congratulations!

As a reminder, you can use all data from this document, pictures and texts in your own channels, and give credit.

Yours,
Charlotte Rinckenbach

FEGENTRI World Championship for Lady and Gentlemen-riders

02.08.2024 CLAIREFONTAINE, FRANCE - PRIX HENRI DE MONTESQUIEU AND PRIX DU CLOS FLEURI

Friday, August 2nd was the occasion for the FEGENTRI amateur riders to come and compete in the Prix du Clos Fleuri and Prix Henri de Montesquieu at the racetrack of Clairefontaine, near Deauville, France.

In the first race, reserved for Gentlemen-riders, six nations were represented: Ireland, England, Spain, Italy, Czech Republic (for which Matyas Luka won the race the year prior) and France. Jonathan Plassard got a second FEGENTRI victory in his home country after the 2.200 meters race, riding PARFAITE MERILL for the owner and trainer Caroline Auvray.

In the lady riders' race, there were a few more runners, with ten horses taking part to the race, and five foreign nations represented (England, Spain, the USA, Sweden and Switzerland), along with five French lady riders who came to complete the ranks. The World Champion Berit Weber won the race on DOWNEVA, who was also the victorious mount of Matyas Luka in the 2023 Prix Henri de Montesquieu. Hélène Sourbé, FEGENTRI French representative, was hurt and did not take part to the race, as well as the following steps in August.

The race day ended with a beautiful summer Gala at the Hotel Barrière at Deauville, on the theme of the FEGENTRI. The following day, the FEGENTRI riders had the pleasure to participate to a sailing race, to finish this memorable weekend with a time on the sea.

06.08.2024 CHELMSFORD, ENGLAND - LADY RIDERS

The Lady Riders got to ride at Chelmsford, England for the 14th race of the season. Six nations were represented, and eight riders were taking part to the race. Megan Jordan, non-nominated English rider, wins the race on BEAUTIFUL CROWN. The lady riders were welcomed by Sarah Oliver in a beautiful property for a warm dinner and cosy stay, organised by the Amateur Jockeys Association of Great Britain.

08.08.2024 LEOPARDSTOWN, IRELAND - MIXED RACE

The FEGENTRI Lady and Gentlemen Riders competed in a mixed race at Leopardstown, Ireland on Thursday, August 8th. It was the occasion for some of them to discover Willie Mullins' stables at Closutton, warmly welcomed by the Qualified Riders Association's President Patrick Mullins, when others got the morning free to wander around the old neighbourhoods of Dublin and enjoy some Celtic live music. Unfortunately, the horses of Emilie Finckenhagen (NOR) and Jonathan Plassard (FRA) were non-runners. J.M. Halford, non-nominated Irish rider, passes the post in front aboard ELZAAMSAM. All participants enjoyed a nice dinner in central Dublin after the race.
